You come to realize there is no such thing as a “small deal” as the implication for the client is always major.

Paul Gamberdella joined Radius in 2006 and has consistently been a top producer at the company and in the market. Over the past 19 years he has been instrumental in sale and lease transactions valued at nearly $1.5 billion. In fact, in 2018, in conjunction with Bob Tuler and Gene Deering, the team completed 16 sales and 56 leases involving more than 770,000 sq. ft. and valued at more than $97 Million.

Still, “It has never been about making deals,” he says. “When you earn trust and form true relationships, the deal follows when the time is right. The biggest payoff you get is the feeling that comes from helping a client.”

A former vice president with CB Richard Ellis Santa Barbara, Paul specializes in office, R&D, industrial and retail property on the South Coast.

“What’s not to love about this business? I get to work with many different clients from diverse professional backgrounds and walks of life. And I know that if I’m successful serving them, I will hopefully have the freedom and flexibility to be around for a long time to enjoy what this community has to offer.”
