When you enjoy what you do, the rest comes easy.

Over his 42-year career, Steve Golis has amassed multifamily and commercial sales amounting to more than 14,000 units sold, with sales volume during the past decade alone exceeding more than $1 billion. Since 1979, he has been involved in all aspects of marketing residential income and multi-family property on the Central Coast, wielding his extensive knowledge and skills honed over the years to connect investors with the most suitable property.

Widely considered the market leader in his specialty, Steve is regularly called on to present at local professional events as an expert in the apartment sector. He is also a contributing author for the UCSB Economic Forecast Project, the Greater Central California Coast Forecast Project and the California State Economic Project. The Santa Barbara Association of Realtors has honored Golis with the Jack Kelly Award for Most Challenging 1031 Exchange (2013, 2018), as well as the Howard C. Gates Achievement Award recognizing the stand-out sale of the year (2018), the first time a commercial broker has received the award.

As a long-time supporter of the community, Steve has been involved in a variety of philanthropic charities in the Central Coast, dedicating his personal time to notable causes as well as providing generous donations. Steve has been involved in multiple organizations, including Rancheros Visitadores, Santa Barbara Trail Riders and Old Spanish Days. He is a board member of the Community Housing Council and has been involved in a Community Housing Board for Low Income and Homeless for over 15 years. He has been serving on a board as an executive member for the Los Padres Council and Outdoor School, as well as an Executive Board member for the Santa Barbara Humane Society, just to name a few.

"I've simply been blessed to do what I love in a place that I love, and I think that positivity has worked out well for me and for my clients."
