Mike Chenoweth

What I value most is staying in the lineup and working to ensure the best outcomes for clients.

One of Radius' founding members in 2002, Michael Chenoweth's career in commercial real estate officially began after graduation from college in 1993. But years before it was his father, a commercial broker, who instilled in him a passion for the industry. "He taught me the ropes, taking me to meetings with him in LA and sharing a great deal of his knowledge."

One of the more important skills he gleaned was listening to the needs of clients, something Michael applies every day.

A lifelong Santa Barbaran, Michael's 20-plus years of experience in the South Coast allow him to provide landlords, tenants and investors with the information they need to make informed decisions in the leasing and sale of commercial property.

Over the last 15 years, Michael has performed over 480 sale and lease transactions for more than 1.7 million sq. ft. and more than $249.5 million in transaction volume.
