Jack Gilbert

Jack Gilbert specializes in multifamily investment sales at Radius Commercial Real Estate, where he serves as a key member of the top-producing Golis Team. Since joining Radius in 2024, Jack has been actively involved in transactions across various asset classes including multifamily, student housing, hospitality, and office properties.

Jack brings a comprehensive understanding of real estate operations through his diverse background in property management and investment analysis. Originally from Oak Park, he moved to Santa Barbara to attend UCSB, where he developed a passion for real estate and investment strategy. His experience includes management for an expansive student housing portfolio valued at over $100 million, where he gained valuable insights into asset management, tenant relations, and property operations. Jack's hands-on experience, combined with his analytical approach to investment sales, allows him to provide unique value to clients seeking both operational efficiency and investment returns.

With a strong foundation in technical analysis, Jack specializes in implementing cutting-edge technology and data-driven solutions to enhance market research and client service. His expertise spans multiple industry-leading platforms, while actively integrating AI-powered tools and advanced software solutions to streamline investment analysis and decision-making processes. Jack expands his market knowledge through participation in industry events including ICSC Las Vegas and Bisnow Multifamily West. Beyond his professional pursuits, Jack is an accomplished powerlifter and enjoys traveling in his free time.
